A screenshot of the Visual Studio Code editor interface. The top menu bar shows "File", "Edit", "View", "Go", "Run", "Terminal", and "Help". The title bar indicates the active file is "form.html - senac-2022 - Visual Studio Code". The editor window shows a file named "form.html" with a line number "1" and the text "html". A dropdown menu is open, showing three options: "html", "html:5", and "html:xml". The "html:5" option is highlighted with a red rectangular box. The "html" option is also highlighted with a blue background. The "html:xml" option is not highlighted. The editor has a dark theme.
